My Officiating Craft & Philosophy

I write, officiate and legalize your license in one simple package. It all starts with me listening to your stories. There are no cookie-cutter templates. No two love stories are the same. I discover the essence of your love story and turn it into the narrative of your one-of-a-kind wedding ceremony. You will hear your own love story in the moments leading up to your vows to each other. Your guests will hear how your love began, grew and led to this moment that you invited them to witness. When you look back on your wedding video in years to come, the words of your ceremony will live on for you to enjoy again and again.
